Headline Performance:

STRAIGHT NO CHASER

Exclusive 60-minute performance only for Gala guests!

Founded at Indiana University, Straight No Chaser rocketed to fame in 2007 with its viral video rendition of “The 12 Days of Christmas.”

Still one of the nation’s hottest a cappella groups, SNC continues to reimagine popular music, amassing more than 100 million views on YouTube and collaborating with such legends as Paul McCartney, Elton John and Stevie Wonder.
Meredith Willson • 1902-1984

Best known as the playwright and composer behind The Music Man, Meredith Willson also was a noted bandleader, broadcaster and writer of popular standards such as “It’s Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas.” His personal papers are housed in the Great American Songbook Archives and are being digitized for online research access.

Peggy Lee • 1920-2002

Born Norma Deloris Egstrom, Peggy Lee rose to fame singing with Benny Goodman’s big band and went on to record decades of jazz and pop hits, including “Fever” and “Is That All There Is?” She also was an actress, composer and songwriter, combining those talents to co-write six songs and voice four characters in the 1955 Disney classic Lady and the Tramp.
