

THE CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

PRESENTS

PALLADIUM PLAYERS

Palladium Players: Impromptu Entertainments by Don Sheridan, with new material by Bill Majeski

About the play: A collection of entertainments – burlesque radio shows, mock weddings, burle-dramas of family mishaps, sitcom-style scenes, pantomimes and other skits – using two to four actors and requiring little or no rehearsal.

Character descriptions:

Fred Smith: a frugal man, newly married to Olga Smith

Olga Smith: Fred Smith's naïve young bride

Bert Smith: Fred Smith's brother, wooing Elsie

Elsie: Olga's sister, dating Fred Smith