SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 AT 5PM
PAYNE & MENCIAS PALLADIUM

ONE NIGHT. ONE STAGE. UNLIMITED IMPACT.

Step into an unforgettable evening where music, artistry, and generosity take center stage.

Center Celebration 2026, presented by Ice Miller, is more than a gala—it's a singular night that fuels arts education, opens doors for students, and ensures the performing arts remain accessible to all. When this community gathers, the impact reaches far beyond the room—supporting free school matinees, education programs, and outreach initiatives that introduce thousands of young people to the magic of live performance.

Music has always been at the heart of how we celebrate, connect, and tell stories. And at the center of this extraordinary night is the shared belief that the arts belong to everyone.

EXPERIENCE THE EXTRAORDINARY

- A Red-Carpet Arrival – Begin the evening with a glamorous welcome, cocktails, and the unmistakable energy of a night that matters.
- A Dinner with Purpose – Enjoy an elegant, seated dinner and take part in a spirited live auction—each bid directly supporting arts education and community outreach.
- Unforgettable Entertainment – A headline performance by The Bacon Brothers featuring Kevin Bacon, alongside special appearances by Michael Feinstein, Artistic Director of the Allied Solutions Center for the Performing Arts.
- A Celebration That Continues – Keep the music going with live entertainment, dancing, and late-night bites at exclusive after-parties.

This is an intimate evening with a lasting ripple effect—one where generosity, music, and community come together in perfect harmony. Reserve your table and be part of a night that places the arts exactly where they belong: at the center of it all.
